

My T-Shape Profile

<https://hpi.de/en/school-of-design-thinking/for-students/application-basic-track.html>

Create your own T-Shape Profile: A T-Shaped person is an expert in one field but who also has many interests and competencies that are not related to their academic knowledge. Considering the template of a T-Shape, please fill in information on your academic studies, research and in-depth work experiences on the vertical line. On the horizontal line enter any other activities and competencies that characterize you.
