

29 de septiembre de 2023, 10:24

View in browser

N.3 July 2023
community

SEA-EU

SEA-EU Newsletter

SEA-EU joins the EAIE in Rotterdam!

The SEA-EU Alliance is currently participating in the EAIE event in Rotterdam. Thousands of higher education professionals from all over the world are gathering there to exchange news, experiences and good practices, and the SEA-EU Alliance has participated with interventions by members of the consortium, as well as with a promotional stand where hundreds of people have passed by to find out more about the benefits of this initiative.

Read more and see the photos

RECRUITING TEACHERS: What Works?

Upcoming: Conference on how to tackle teacher shortage

Countries around the globe are struggling to recruit teachers and

Joint Master in Port Management and Logistics (MIPMAL) Strengthens Ties with Port Authority of Gdansk

The Academic Committee of the Joint Master in Port Management and student teachers. May 6-7, 2024, Nord University organizes the international conference "Recruiting Teachers - What Works?" that focuses on initiatives and actions that have led to a positive change. <https://site.nord.no/recruitingteachers/>

Logistics (MIPMAL) recently convened a crucial meeting with the Port Authority of Gdansk to explore collaborative opportunities. This engagement marks a significant step forward in enhancing the academic and practical aspects of the MIPMAL program.

READ MORE

400 higher education institutions meet in Barcelona at the European University Alliances Forum in Bodø

Representatives from the SEA-EU initiative were in attendance, including General Coordinator Fidel Echevarria, General Director Laura Howard, Vicerrector of UALG Alexandra Teodosio, and representatives of the SEA-EU Cities Council, Peter Olsen (Bodø Municipality) and the project office of the University of Kiel Linda Pialek.

READ MORE

Blue Growth Session of SEA-EU Talent was held

On July 28th, a seminar on Blue Growth was held as part of our SEA EU Talent program. The two guest speakers for the session were two young researchers who are experts in this field: Trinetra Mukherjee and Wojciech Pokora.

READ MORE

Promotion of Open Science practice by Videocapsules

The video capsules for the promotion of Open Science practice are already available in our YouTube Channel SEA-EU European University of the Seas for researchers, stakeholders and society.

SEE MORE

Closing of the BLUE NIGHTS project organised in the framework of SEA-EU

Within the framework of the European University of the Seas (SEA-EU), the closing seminar of the Blue Nights project, led by Edna Hernández, researcher at the University of Western Brittany (UBO), was held on 19 September at the Faculty of Arts (UBO).

READ MORE

SEA-EU Staff Day at UM

The historic Valletta Campus of the University of Malta hosted in July the first ever SEA-EU Staff Day. The event brought together university's educators, researchers, and administrative staff in order to summarise the accomplishments of the first phase of the alliance and unveil ambitious plans for its second phase.

READ MORE

Visit our website and follow us on social media

Visit our website

SEA-EU

This email was sent to beatriz.diaz@uca.es

If you wish to unsubscribe from our newsletter, click here

--

Beatriz Díaz Garduño

reSEArch-EU - Research Technician

European University of the Seas

University of Cadiz

<https://researcheu.sea-eu.org/>