SEA·EU

EUROPEAN UNIVERSITY OF THE SEAS

SEA-EU Newsletter

SEA-EU Governing Week Highlights Collaborative Success

The SEA-EU Alliance reports the conclusion of its Governing Week, ending last Friday on December 1st. Held in the city of Split and hosted by the University of Split, the week-long event witnessed the participation of representatives from all partner universities.

READ MORE

Co-funded by the European Union

watch our new video

CLICK HERE

LIVING SUSTAINABLE
ACROSS BORDERS

Success at the Dipuactiva SEA-EU Talent Awards ceremony

This event, recognizing and rewarding the excellence of young researchers,

SEA-EU International Football tournament

The SEA-EU Football Tournament, held on Monday 20 and Tuesday 21 November 2023, unprecedentedly witnessed the presence of organizers, awardees, and participants and stands as a clear example of the fruitful collaboration between SEA-EU and its associated partners.

READ MORE

brought together 70 participants from the four universities of the SEA-EU Alliance, through their common love of football.
READ MORE

SEA-EU stand at "Univexpò"

On the 15th of November 2023, Parthenope University took part in the event "Univexpò" held at Monte Sant'Angelo campus of the Federico II university in Naples.
This exposition was aimed to provide general information and present opportunities offered by the university to more than 30.000 potential incoming students participating in the event.
READ MORE

reSEArchEU joins the Cross Alliances Forum in Brussels

The event facilitated dialogues between Alliances and external stakeholders, exploring diverse models and pathways to excellence within the European R&I ecosystem.
READ MORE

The SPIN-OFF Competence Lab Trainning program comes to an end

The aim of this task was to improve and support an entrepreneurial mindset and entrepreneurial competences among scientists in a two-step process to increase and exploit the potential of entrepreneurial ideas and initiatives.

READ MORE

Open Science Day: From Open Access and Open data to Citizen Engagement

On October 26th will be held at the University of Cadiz the open science conference: From Open Access and Open data to the involvement of citizens.

READ MORE

reSEArch EU and European Researcher Nights in the Universities of the Alliance

During the European Researchers' Night (ERN), Universities members of the Alliance held different activities, workshops and exhibitions.

READ MORE

Visit our website and follow us on social media

Visit our website